Dear Cousin Warren:
Will you receive my most affectionate sympathy! I have very fond recollections of Sarah. From your cousin Louisa L. M. D.

Westfield, January 28, 1917

Dear Cousin Warren;

Esther sent me word yesterday that your wife has died. She has been so long, and so painfully ill, that I hope you regard her departure rather as her release ~~rather~~ than your loss, great as that must have been. She was an admirable woman, and managed her part of your extensive affairs with great attention and industry. The loss of your son and daughter fell more heavily upon her than on you and her care for your present son and daughter has been attentive, and very pleasing for me to witness.

You are now left with two children and five or six grandchildren, all of whom are a pleasure to you. I hope you are in good health yourself, and are able to make those additions to your history of our native town, of which we talked when I was last at your house. Whether I shall ever get there again is uncertain. My accident, thought not as yet very painful, is very embarrassing, and there is no certainty that I shall ever be able to walk about again. I have the free use of my arms and hands, and am in good health otherwise; but the issue of all is very doubtful.

Remember me to your family and all friends who inquire; and should you happen to be writing to our cousin, Colonel Thomas Leavitt, of Illinois, please remember me to him and tell him what has happened to me.

I hear nothing further about Abbie's property, or whether she is selling anything to Mr. Farmer. Should anything of the sort occur, please notify me.

In long remembrance of your kindness to me and of your dear mother, I sign myself,

Your true cousin, L. B. Lamson
